The Candyman Musical Gear Swap Consignment Policies:

Sellers wishing to forego a booth at the event may choose to consign their items for inclusion in The Candyman booth, as specified below.

- Consignment Sellers must fill out an online Consignment Request Form prior to dropping off their items.
- All items may be dropped off at The Candyman Friday and Saturday (September 29-30) between the hours of 10:00am and 5:00pm. Consignment Sellers are asked to work with a Candyman employee upon drop off rather than on a 'drop and run' basis.
- The Candyman will keep 15% of the sold price.
- Consignment Sellers will receive payment for items sold, by check, within 10 business days.
- All unsold merchandise must be picked up within 7 days.
- Items not picked up within 7 days will become property of The Candyman Strings & Things and donated to The Candyman Scholarship Fund.
- The Candyman Strings & Things makes no guarantee that merchandise will sell.
- All items will be sold "As Is."

The Candyman Strings & Things reserves the right:

- to refuse service to anyone.
- to inspect all items consigned for sale.
- to request removal of any items considered inappropriate for the event.
- to prohibit certain items from being sold or exchanged.
- to change the rules and regulations.

The Candyman Strings & Things does not sanction or endorse any services or products represented by our Sellers.

All Consignment Sellers understand these policies are good only for The Candyman Strings & Things Musical Gear Swap O' Rama event. Items not sold will not be further consigned and will be placed in storage until Consignment Seller picks them up, no later than 7 days from the day of the event.
